

Monroe High School senior Michael Alexander playing Edward Bloom attempts to read his son Will, portrayed by a MHS 9th grader Spencer Langston, a selection out of Homer's Iliad, but soon gives up and tells another one of his own fantastical stories from his travels after coming home from his job as a travelling salesman in "Big Fish" on stage starting Friday, May 6, for two weekends in the school's Performing Arts Center at 17001 Tester Road in Monroe. Tickets are available at the door - $15 for adults and $10 for students and senior citizens. "Big Fish" was a smash hit on Broadway and also made in to a movie in 2003. It tells the story of a father in poor health trying to reconnect with his adult son after years of the father being away from home due to his career as a travelling salesman.
